THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Psalm 23: Read by Marcus and Lachy Lal

The Lord is my shepherd;

therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall make me lie down in green pastures and lead me beside still waters.

I will fear no evil, for you are with me.

He shall refresh my soul:

and guide me in right pathways for his name's sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil;

for you are with me;

your rod and your staff comfort me.

I will fear no evil, for you are with me.

You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me;

you have anointed my head with oil and my cup shall be full.

Surely goodness and loving-kindness will follow me

all the days of my life:

and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

I will fear no evil, for you are with me.

Reading: Proverbs 31:10-31 - Read by Ella and Cooper Savage

Who shall find a valiant woman: she is worth far more than jewels.

Advantage and not hurt she brings all the days of her life.

She does her work with eager spirit;

with what her efforts have earned, she plant a vineyard. She holds out her hand to the poor and opens her arms to the needy. She is clothed in strength and dignity, and can laugh at the days to come. When she opens her mouth she does so wisely;

on her tongue is kindly instruction.

Those who know her sing her praises

"Many women have done admirable things, but you surpass them all.

" Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

THE PRAYERS

Let us pray with confidence to God our Father, who raised Jesus Christ from the dead for the salvation of all.

The Priest offers the prayers, concluding with:

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray

Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever. Amen.
